

Arbitration in Romania

A Practitioner's Guide

Edited by
Crenguța Leaua
Flavius A. Baias

Wolters Kluwer

Table of Contents

Editors	v
Contributors	vii
Preface	xxxv
CHAPTER 1
The Legislative Framework of Arbitration in Romania	1
§1.01 Brief Introduction to the National Legal System of Romania	1
Ștefan Deaconu	1
[A] Position of the Constitution in the Romanian Legal System	1
[B] The Judicial Power	2
[1] Terminological Definitions	2
[2] Administration of Justice	3
[C] The National Legal System	3
[1] Legislation	3
[2] Relationships between Domestic and International Legal Orders	5
[3] Relationships between Domestic and EU Legal Orders	6
[D] Judicial Review of the Legislation	7
[1] History	7
[2] The Constitutional Court – Structure – Activity	8
[3] The Jurisdiction of the Constitutional Court	8
[4] The Objection as to Unconstitutionality	8
§1.02 The Evolution of the Romanian Legislation on Arbitration
Flavius A. Baias	10
[A] History	10
[1] Regulation of Arbitration before the First Civil Procedure Code	10

[2]	Regulation of Ad Hoc Arbitration in the Code of Civil Procedure of 1864	12
[a]	Adoption of the Modern Codes during the Reign of Alexandru Ioan Cuza	12
[b]	The Code of Civil Procedure of 1865	13
[c]	Carol II Draft Code of Civil Procedure (1940)	14
[d]	Regulation of Arbitration during the Communist Period (1948-1989)	15
[e]	Amendment of the Code of Civil Procedure in 1993	16
[3]	Institutional Arbitration in Romania	18
[4]	Romania's Accession to International Arbitration Conventions	20
[5]	Constitutional Ground of Arbitration	21
[B]	Regulation of Ad Hoc Arbitration in the Code of Civil Procedure of 2010	23
[1]	Preview	23
[2]	Systematization	25
[3]	Sources of Inspiration	25
[4]	Critical Opinions	27
§1.03	Arbitration and Constitutional Law
	Ștefan Deaconu	29
[A]	The Constitutionality of Arbitration	29
[B]	The Access of Arbitral Tribunals to the Constitutionality Control	29
[1]	The Method of Access to the Constitutionality Control	29
[2]	Special Procedural Rules Applicable to the Objection as to Unconstitutionality	35
[3]	The Correlation between the Rules of Arbitral Procedure and the Rules of Procedure Applicable to the Objection as to Unconstitutionality	36
[a]	The Requirement for the Seizure of the Constitutional Court or the Dismissal of the Seizure Request to Be Enclosed in an Order with a Specific Content	37
[b]	The Existence of Second Appeal, as Avenue to Appeal the Court's Decision to Dismiss the Request for Seizing the Constitutional Court	38
[4]	The Role of the Attorney-at-Law in the Objection of Unconstitutionality	40
[C]	Relevant Case Law of the Constitutional Court	42
CHAPTER 2
	The Choice of Law in Arbitration	45
§2.01	The Applicable Law in International Arbitration
	Dragoș-Alexandru Sitaru & Teodora-Maria Bantaș-Văduva	45

[A]	Introductory Remarks	45
[B]	Law Applicable to the Arbitration Agreement	46
[1]	Law Applicable to the Formal Requirements of the Arbitration Agreement	46
[a]	Provisions of International Agreements	46
[b]	Domestic Law Provisions	48
[2]	Law Applicable to the Substantive Requirements of an Arbitration Agreement	51
[a]	Regulation under the Applicable Law	51
[b]	Scope of the Law Governing the Substantive Validity Conditions of the Arbitration Agreement	53
[c]	Contesting the Validity of the Arbitration Agreement	56
[C]	Law Applicable to the Arbitration Procedure	57
[1]	The Law Applicable to the Arbitration Procedure Is Determined by the Parties' Consent	57
[2]	The Law Applicable to the Arbitration Procedure Is Determined by the Arbitral Tribunal	59
[3]	The Procedural Law Is the Law Applicable at the Seat of Arbitration	59
[4]	Limits of Determining the Rules Applicable to the Arbitration Procedure	60
[5]	Particularities regarding the Law Applicable to the Procedure in Ad Hoc International Arbitration	61
[6]	Particularities regarding the Law Applicable to the Procedure in Institutional Arbitration	62
[7]	Subsidiary Rules regarding the Arbitration Procedure	62
[8]	Scope of the Law Governing the Arbitration Procedure	63
[D]	Law Applicable to the Merits of the Dispute	65
[1]	Regulation	65
[2]	Determining the Law Applicable to the Merits of the Dispute According to the Parties' Consent	65
[a]	The Legal Ground of the Parties' Choice	65
[b]	Object of the Parties' Will	67
[c]	Ways of Expressing the Parties' Will	68
[d]	Law Applicable to the Clause regarding the Choice (Electio Juris Convention)	71
[e]	Relation between the Clause regarding the Choice and the Main Contract	72
[f]	The Right Time for Expressing the Parties' Will	73
[g]	Scope of the Parties' Will	73
[h]	Modification of the Choice of the Applicable Law	75
[i]	Freedom to Choose the Applicable Law	75
[j]	Limits of Choosing the Applicable law	76

[3] Arbitrators' Determination of the Law Applicable to the Merits of the Dispute	79
[4] Incidence of Customs and Professional Rules in International Commercial Arbitration	81
[5] Decision of Cases Ex Aequo Et Bono	83
[6] Scope of the Law Governing the Merits of the Dispute	83
CHAPTER 3
The Arbitral Procedure	85
§3.01 The Arbitrability of Disputes
Traian C. Briciu	85
[A] Introductory Remarks	85
[B] Arbitrability of Domestic Disputes	86
[1] Objective Arbitrability	86
[a] Non-arbitrability of Disputes Pertaining to Rights of Which Parties Cannot Freely Dispose	87
[b] Non-arbitrability of Disputes Expressly Excluded from Arbitrability by the Law	90
[c] Non-arbitrability of the Disputes Pertaining to Personal Status, Personal Capacity, Inheritance or Family Relations	91
[2] Subjective Arbitrability	94
§3.02 The Arbitration Agreement
Crenguța Leaua	96
[A] Introductory Remarks	96
[B] Forms of the Arbitration Agreement	97
[C] Validity Conditions of the Arbitration Agreement	98
[1] Validity Conditions of the Arbitration Agreement in Domestic Arbitration	99
[a] Substantive Requirements	99
[b] Formal Requirements	100
[2] Validity Conditions of the Arbitration Agreement in International Arbitration	103
[a] Substantive Requirements	103
[b] Formal Requirements	104
[D] Inefficiency of the Arbitration Agreement	104
§3.03 The Arbitrators: Appointment – Challenge – Liability
Dalma Demeter	107
[A] Introductory Remarks	107
[B] The Arbitral Tribunal	108
[1] The Mandate of Arbitrators	108
[C] Tribunal's Powers and Obligations	112
[D] Liability of Arbitrators	116
[E] The Composition of an Arbitral Tribunal	118

[1]	Number of Arbitrators	119
[2]	Qualifications of Arbitrators	120
[F]	Appointment Procedure	123
[G]	Challenge	129
[1]	Grounds for Challenge	131
[2]	Challenge Procedure	135
§3.04	The Arbitral Proceedings
Ioan Schiau		139
[A]	Introductory Remarks	139
[B]	Commencement of Arbitral Proceedings	139
[1]	The Main Procedural Filings of the Parties	140
[a]	Preliminary Observations	140
[b]	The Request for Arbitration	141
[c]	The Statement of Defence	144
[d]	The Counterclaim	145
[2]	Procedural Acts	147
[a]	Notion	147
[b]	Communication of the Procedural Acts	147
[c]	Irregularity of the Procedural Acts	148
[C]	Conduct of the Arbitral Proceedings – Basic Procedural Rules	148
[1]	Fundamental Principles	148
[2]	Procedural Rules	153
[3]	Review of the Arbitral File	153
[4]	Jurisdiction of the Arbitral Tribunal	154
[5]	Hearings and Default of Parties	156
[6]	Joinder of Third Parties	157
[7]	Interim Measures	158
[8]	Preliminary Issues	159
[D]	Conduct of Arbitral Proceedings (Taking of Evidence)	161
[1]	The Burden of Proof	161
[2]	Taking and Assessment of Evidence	161
§3.05	The Arbitral Costs
Andreea N. Simulescu		164
[A]	Introductory Remarks	164
[B]	Definition and Categories of Arbitral Costs	164
[1]	Costs Associated with Organizing and Holding the Arbitral Proceedings	166
[2]	Costs Associated with Arbitrators' Fees	166
[3]	Costs Associated with the Administration of Evidence	167
[4]	Costs Associated with Travelling of Parties, Arbitrators, Experts and Witnesses	167
[C]	Allocation of Costs	167
[1]	The Principle of Party Autonomy	167
[2]	The Arbitral Tribunal's Discretion	168

[3]	The Rules of the Arbitral Institutions	170
[D]	The Special Situation of the Arbitrators' Fees	171
[1]	The Decision on Fixing the Arbitrator's Fees	171
[2]	The Payment of the Arbitrators' Fees	171
[E]	The Advance Payment of the Costs	171
[F]	The Adjustment of Costs	172
[G]	The Intervention of the National Courts of Law with Respect to the Arbitral Costs	173
[H]	The Arbitral Costs in International Arbitration	173
§3.06	Time Limit for Rendering the Award
	Matei Purice	174
[A]	Introductory Remarks	174
[B]	Time Limit Provided by the Law	174
[C]	Extension of the Time Limit to Render the Award	175
[D]	Suspending the Time Limit to Render the Award	177
[E]	Consequences of the Expiration of the Time Limit to Render the Award	178
§3.07	The Arbitral Award
	Crenguța Leaua	180
[A]	Introductory Remarks	180
[B]	Types of Arbitral Awards	180
[1]	Arbitral Awards and Arbitral Resolutions	180
[2]	Final and Partial Arbitral Awards	182
[C]	Procedural Issues Related to Arbitral Awards	184
[1]	Deliberation	184
[2]	Rendering the Award	185
[a]	Timeframe for Rendering the Award	185
[b]	Manner of Rendering the Arbitral Awards	185
[c]	Obligation to Draft the Minute	186
[3]	Drafting of Arbitral Awards	187
[4]	Communication of Arbitral Awards	187
[a]	The Obligation to Communicate the Award	187
[b]	Communication Method	188
[c]	Release of Proof for Communication	188
[5]	Deposit of Arbitral Awards and Case Files	189
[D]	Requirements Applicable to Arbitral Awards	189
[1]	Requirements Applicable to Arbitral Awards	189
[a]	General Requirements	189
[b]	Special Status of Disputes Involving Real Rights over Real Estate Properties	193
[2]	Requirements Specific for the Hearing Minutes	194
[E]	Interpretation, Supplementation and Correction of Arbitral Awards	196
[1]	Subject Matter of the Request	196

[2]	Legal Standing	197
[3]	Timeframe for Filing the Request	197
[4]	Competence	197
[5]	Procedure	197
[6]	Timeframe for Rendering the Award	198
[7]	Form of the Award	198
[8]	Arbitration Expenses	198
[F]	Effects of Arbitral Awards	198
 CHAPTER 4
	The Role of the Courts of Law in Arbitration	201
§4.01	The Role of Courts during the Arbitral Proceedings
	Adrian Rațiu	201
[A]	Introductory Remarks	201
[B]	The General Role of the Courts of Law in the Arbitration Proceedings	202
[C]	Specific Cases of Court Intervention during Arbitral Proceedings	203
[1]	The Appointment of the Arbitral Tribunal	204
[2]	The Appointment in Case of Challenge, Abstention, Revocation or Waiver of Arbitrators	205
[3]	Liability Actions against the Arbitrators	206
[4]	Interim or Conservatory Measures	207
[5]	Constraint and Sanctions Applicable to Witnesses or Experts	208
[6]	Compelling Public Authorities to Provide the Arbitral Tribunal with Written Information	210
[7]	The Setting and Payment of Arbitral Fees and Expenses	211
§4.02	Setting Aside of Arbitral Awards
	Ștefan Dudas	212
[A]	Introductory Remarks	212
[B]	General Legal Regime and Scope of the Action to Set Aside	213
[C]	Grounds for Setting Aside	216
[1]	The Dispute is Not Arbitrable (Article 608(1)(a) NCPC)	217
[2]	The Arbitral Tribunal Accepted Jurisdiction without an Existing Arbitration Agreement in Place or under a Null and Void or Ineffective Arbitration Agreement (Article 608(1)(b) NCPC)	219
[3]	The Arbitral Tribunal Was Not Constituted in Accordance with the Arbitration Agreement (Article 608(1)(c) NCPC)	223
[4]	Lack of Proper Summoning (Article 608(1)(d) NCPC)	224
[5]	The Award Was Rendered outside the Six-Month Time Limitation (Article 608(1)(e) NCPC)	225

[6]	The Arbitral Tribunal Ruled on Aspects Which Had Not Been Submitted for Review by the Parties or Granted More Than It Had Been Requested (Article 608(1)(f) NCPC)	226
[7]	The Award Does Not Include the Relief Granted or the Reasoning, Does Not Indicate the Date and the Arbitral Seat, or It Is Not Signed by the Arbitrators (Article 608(1)(g) NCPC)	228
[8]	The Award Runs Contrary to Public Policy, Good Moral Conduct or Mandatory Provisions of Romanian Law (Article 608(1)(h) NCPC)	229
[9]	Following the Date when the Award Is Rendered, the Constitutional Court Declares as Unconstitutional a Law, an Ordinance or Any Legal Provision That Forms Part of the Governing Law and Is Relevant to the Arbitration (Article 608(1)(i) NCPC)	232
[D]	Judicial Proceedings to Set Aside Awards	233
[1]	Competent Court	233
[2]	Deadline for Bringing an Application to Set Aside	233
[3]	Suspension of Award Enforcement	234
[4]	Ruling on the Application to Set Aside	235
$4.03	Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in Romania
	Ileana M. Smeureanu	236
[A]	Introductory Remarks	236
[B]	Legal Framework	236
[1]	Domestic Law	236
[2]	International Conventions to Which Romania Is a Party	237
[a]	The New York Convention: Reciprocal and Commercial Reservations	237
[b]	The Geneva Convention (1961) and Its Impact on the Contracting States to the New York Convention (1958)	239
[3]	Interplay between Domestic and International Law	240
[C]	Definitions of the Relevant Legal Terms	241
[1]	International Arbitral Proceedings	241
[2]	Awards	242
[3]	Meaning of 'Foreign'	243
[D]	Procedure for Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards	244
[1]	General Background	244
[2]	Procedure before Local Courts	244
[a]	Preliminary Steps: Authentication and Certification	245
[b]	The Competent Court and Relevant Procedure	247
[c]	Statute of Limitations and Duration	248
[E]	Refusal of Recognition and Enforcement	249

[1] Preliminary Remarks	249
[2] Grounds for Refusal	250
§4.04 Forced Execution of Arbitral Awards
Claudiu Constantin Dinu & Andra Filatov-Dodul	255
[A] Introductory Remarks	255
[B] Purpose, Functions and Features of Forced Execution	256
[C] Forced Execution Methods	260
[D] Participants in the Forced Execution Procedures	260
[1] Parties in the Forced Execution Process: Rights and Obligations	262
[2] The Enforcement Officer	264
[3] The Court of Law	266
[4] The Public Ministry	267
[E] The Forced Execution Procedure	268
[1] Preliminary Conditions to Initiate Forced Execution	268
[a] The Existence of a Receivable That Is Certain, Liquid and Due	268
[b] The Existence of an Enforceable Title in Accordance with the Law	270
[2] Initiation and Cessation of Forced Execution	273
[3] Challenge against Forced Execution	275
[4] Application of Specific Forced Execution Methods	276
 CHAPTER 5
The Arbitral Institutions	287
§5.01 Institutional Arbitration in Romania
Cristiana I. Stoica	287
[A] Introductory Remarks	287
[B] The Evolution of the Romanian Law on Institutional Arbitration	288
[C] The Rules regarding Institutional Arbitration in the NCPC	290
[D] International Arbitral Proceedings Applying to Institutional Arbitration	295
[E] The Chamber Court System of Institutional Arbitration	304
[F] The Organization of the Court of International Commercial Arbitration	305
[G] The Arbitral Proceedings under the Rules 2014	309
§5.02 A Selection of CICA-CCIR Case Law
Marin Voicu	315
[A] Introductory Remarks	315
[B] Case Law on the Methods of Seizing CICA-CCIR	315
[1] Seizing CICA-CCIR by the Request for Arbitration	315
[2] Seizing CICA-CCIR by the Courts of Law
Declining Jurisdiction	315

[3]	Seizing CICA-CCIR by the Courts of Law Following an Annulment of the Arbitral Award	316
[C]	Case Law on the Validity and Interpretation of Arbitration Agreement	317
[D]	Case Law on the CICA-CCIR Lack of Jurisdiction	319
[E]	Case Law on Procedural Objections in the Arbitral Proceedings	325
[1]	Objection of Inadmissibility of Declaratory Awards	325
[2]	Objections Based on the Arbitration Term	326
[3]	Objection on Unconstitutionality	327
[F]	Case Law on Objections Related to Both Procedure and Merits	329
[1]	Objection of Lack of Legal Standing	329
[2]	Objection Based on Res Judicata	330
[3]	Objection on Limitation	332
§5.03	Romanian Arbitration Law Issues in ICC Paris Arbitration Practice
Alina Leoveanu		336
[A]	Introductory Remarks	336
[B]	Romania: A Statistical Overview	337
[C]	Interactions between the ICC Rules and the Romanian Arbitration Law	342
[1]	Party Autonomy	343
[2]	The ICC Court Is the Only Body Authorized to Administer Arbitrations under the ICC Rules	343
[3]	Applicable Version of the Rules	343
[4]	Commencement of an ICC arbitration	344
[5]	Extension of the Time Limit for Filing the Answer	344
[6]	Absence of an Answer – Jurisdictional Objections	344
[7]	Competence-Competence	346
[8]	Constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal	346
[9]	Place of Arbitration	348
[10]	Language of Arbitration	348
[11]	Applicable Law	348
[12]	Terms of Reference	348
[13]	Case Management Conference	349
[14]	Closing of the Proceedings	349
[15]	Arbitral Award: Time Limit	349
[16]	Making of Awards	350
[17]	Scrutiny	350
[18]	Effect of Awards	351
[D]	Conclusions	351
CHAPTER 6
Investment Arbitration		353
§6.01	Investment Arbitration in Romania
Crina Baltag		353

[A]	Introductory Remarks	353
[B]	Romanian Law on Foreign Investments	355
	[1] Foreign Investments	356
	[2] Foreign Investors	357
[C]	Guaranties Granted to Foreign Investments	357
[D]	International Conventions and Romanian Law	359
	[1] The ICSID Convention	359
	[2] The Energy Charter Treaty	361
	[3] Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties	362
	[4] The New York Convention (1958)	363
[E]	EU Law and Investments	364
[F]	Bilateral Investment Treaties to Which Romania Is a Party	367
	[1] The Notion of 'Investor'	367
	[2] The Notion of 'Investment'	368
	[3] Substantive Protection of Investments	369
	[4] Procedural Protection of Investments	372
[G]	Investment Arbitration and Romania	372
	[1] Noble Ventures v. Romania	373
	[a] The Facts	373
	[b] The Umbrella Clause	374
	[2] EDF Services v. Romania	377
	[a] The Facts	377
	[b] The Decision on the Merits	379
	[c] The Issue of Attribution	380
	[3] Micula v. Romania	382
	[a] The Facts	382
	[b] The Decision on Jurisdiction	383
	[c] The Merits of the Case	386
	[4] Spyridon Roussalis v. Romania	388
	[a] The Facts	388
	[b] The Decision of the Tribunal on the Main Claims	390
	[c] Other Claims	391
	[d] Romania's Counterclaim	392
	[5] Rompetrol v. Romania	394
	[a] The Facts	394
	[b] The Jurisdiction of the ICSID	396
	[c] The Merits of the Case	398
	[6] Ömer Dede v. Romania	401
	[a] The Facts	401
	[b] The Decision of the Tribunal	402
	[7] Awdi v. Romania	404
	[a] The Facts	404
	[b] The Jurisdiction and Admissibility Objections	407
	[c] The Merits of the Case	408

CHAPTER 7

Other Alternative Dispute Resolution Methods 409

§7.01 Legal Framework of Mediation in Romania

Cornelia Lefter & Claudiu Ignat

- [A] Introductory Remarks 409
- [B] Legal Framework of Mediation in Romania 409
- [C] Mediation – Definition and Its Legal Nature 410
- [D] The Mediation's Domains of Applicability 411
- [E] The Principles of Mediation 413
- [F] The Mediator 415
 - [1] The Conditions Imposed by Law for Acquiring the Capacity as Mediator 415
 - [2] The Suspension of the Capacity as Mediator 420
 - [3] The End of the Capacity as Mediator 420
- [G] The Legal Forms Used to Perform Mediation Activities 421
 - [1] Professional Civil Society 421
 - [2] The Individual Office of Mediator 422
 - [3] Collective Office of Mediators 423
 - [4] Mediation Performed Within a Non-governmental Organization 424
 - [5] The Advertising of the Legal Forms Used to Perform Mediation Activities 425
- [H] The Mediation Procedure 426
- [I] The Mediator's Professional Liability 434
- [J] Conclusion 435

§7.02 RO Domain Name Disputes in Romania

Mihaela Maravela

- [A] Introductory Remarks 435
- [B] Legal Framework of Domains and Subdomains in the .ro Area 436
- [C] The Registration Agreement: Grounds for Rejecting an Application for a Domain Name 437
- [D] General Information on Dispute Resolution Avenues: Mediation by the Registry 438
- [E] Remedies Available in Case of Breach of Third Party Prior Rights by Registration of Domain Names 439
 - [1] Remedies That Can Be Taken by the Registry 440
 - [2] Remedies According to the UDRP 441
 - [3] Remedies in Front of Courts of Law 445
 - [a] Application of Tort Rules 445
 - [b] Application of Intellectual Property Laws: Counterfeiting of Trademarks 446
 - [c] Application of Other Laws/Principles 447

§7.03 Dispute Adjudication Board in Romania

Crenguța Leaua & Corina Tănase

448

[A]	Introductory Remarks	448
[B]	Legal Regime of the DAB in Romania	448
	[1] Definition of the DAB	448
	[2] Contractual and Optional Character of the DAB Procedure	449
	[3] DAB as a Preliminary Procedure to Arbitration	450
[C]	The DAB Decision and Arbitration	452
	[1] The Binding Character of the DAB Decision	452
	[2] Failure to Comply with the DAB Decision – Breach of Contract	452
	[3] The Redress in Case a Party Fails to Comply with a Final and Binding DAB Decision – Enforcement in Arbitration	454
	[4] The Redress in Case a Party Fails to Comply with a Binding (but Not Final) DAB Decision	455
	[a] Enforcement of the DAB Decision by the Way of Partial Awards Ordering Immediate Payment of Binding (but Not Final) DAB Decisions	457
	[b] Relationship between the Partial Award on the Enforcement of DAB Decisions and the Final Award on the Merits	461
[D]	The Failure to Comply with the DAB Procedure and Arbitration	463
	[1] Claimant's Claims	464
	[2] Respondent's Counterclaim in Arbitration	464

APPENDICES	465
------------	-----

APPENDIX 1
List of Abbreviations	467

APPENDIX 2
Extract of the Romanian Civil Code	471

APPENDIX 3
Romanian Civil Procedure Code	475

APPENDIX 4
Regulations on the Organization and Operation of the Court of International Commercial Arbitration Attached to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania	503