work.” The former, “at the time of the end,” was “raised” in Father’s glory, and not vice versa, as in tendentious and deceiving manner, we understood and is “awaited” by many people.

So, as I was waiting as well, I spent my youth years in prison, in a cold and dark cell, sentenced to 3 years and 6 months, for religious beliefs from the Scriptures. Then I was followed by the security in the past century, until the 1989 revolution. When everything seemed to be normal in my life, on July 9, 2008 I lost sight. Doctors performed surgery and concluded: retinal detachment, prominent myopia, cataract; but also weakened heart, intervening with a stimulator afterwards! After that day, under Father’s blessing, I wrote, “Judgment Day’s Here”, followed by “BEHOLD THE MAN”.

CHAPTER I

“WHERE ARE YOU?”

“Genesis” is described in detail in the Scriptures. The 6,000-year time that has passed has shown that there’s confusion between the “righteous man” made and blessed by God, to be “master over all...” and the creation of man – as “woman” brought to the “man” to give her the right name. Thus we read: “Now the Lord God had formed out of the ground all (...)He brought them to the man. Then the Lord God made a woman... and he brought her to the man.” (Genesis 1:26, 2: 19-22). This “man” made by God and his wife, “the woman” made by Lord God are my targets, reported to the Scriptures, and I will show, for everyone’s comprehension, what happened to the two people since genesis until today. Man’s activity has been reduced from the beginning, by deception and delusion, only to what is seen physically, materially, palpably and “pleasant to look”, starting from the story of “the apple” and what was called “sin.” And according to deception, man lived in the hope of reaching “heaven”, exactly where the Devil and his angels “were thrown to the earth”. From the beginning, it has been suggested to man that he’d be taken into the “Kingdom of heaven” if he obeys and submits to specific rules and principles that would lead him to particular knowledge of “good and evil”. But the Scripture shows that “the Kingdom of heaven” is (Luke 17:20), doesn’t come from anywhere. Whoever is not part of Father’s work is considered “outcast” and leaves the Kingdom of heaven by himself!

I get the deception in which the female human was attracted then, on genesis by the element already “made” for this purpose, affected and obsessed any man born from the woman. This distance and detachment from a particular moment, in our case from genesis and the God of genesis, the Father, as Jesus called Him, is demonstrated “today”, nowadays, in the event of the plane crash in the Apuseni Mountains with the seven survivors in the SOS transmission! Being asked by the 112 department “Where are you?” the man, in this case the surviving doctor looking around at his helpless fellows, replied: “I’m in the mountains, among trees, in snow and cold, in fog and pitch-black darkness.” How truthful is what this man says, under helpless destiny to all the inhabitants of the earth, is to be revealed nowadays when a specific war involving peoples is highlighted.

The man of our day is witness to an aviation event, as many other happening in the world. It happened on the territory of our country, Romania. On that fleeting day, a civilian plane flew for humanitarian purposes, with seven people aboard: two crew members, four doctors, and a medical student. This plane crashed somewhere in the Apuseni Mountains, in an unknown location. Why does this event attract everyone’s attention? The authorities in charge of saving those in need turned out to be wrong, out of unknown reasons and got stuck, unable to search and rescue the seven survivors, unaware of what steps to take, although possessing advanced, modern, computerized technique equipment; to this we add the politicians’ carelessness, people in power, who proved to be unable to know, to “decipher” the aviation data received from the suffering survivors near the wreck of the plane in the Apuseni Mountains. Noteworthy that the airplane was equipped with the most advanced equipment corresponding to an airplane flight in the 21st century, which transmitted S.O.S. signal in the air, received near or far, even to Moscow.

The press and the television describe the event in detail, being analyzed by specialists in the field, in words easy to get by ordinary people, but unclear, incomprehensible to the entire elite in the team who manages the situation, only on political criteria. Once again, we have a proof that politics confuses our mind, messing up with it. The same happens in the case of religion, or another form of “knowledge,” beyond divinity. Not only politics is a determinant factor of the current context, but it has to be corroborated with several causes and reasons in today’s man’s life, the modern man. At the beginning of the 21st century—the seventh millennium—politicians, “those in power”, as Scripture calls them, took over the command of the parliament, doubled their number, contrary to the referendum voted by the people, to reduce it. And in their rush for fortune, setting incredibly high salaries for them compared to ordinary people, needy people who work hard, gave laws appropriate to their purpose, in order to get rich and continue the endless “war” between the two institutions of the state: presidential and governmental. Politics created premises of “shameless” unfolding, in the public eye, of a particular condition that proves every time that man is on the verge of “war” with himself.

The political, social, moral and religious context in the twentieth century, which educated him in a particular manner, with an atheistic socialist-communist ideology, found man unprepared to cope with the events unfolding like a kaleidoscope before him today, “in the twenty-first century, the seventh millennium. “People aren’t prepared for something they haven’t lived. State institutions are confused. They don’t know how to react”, says Professor Liiceanu. This century places him in a different way of thinking about oneself, about the others, and not least, making him an active participant in a particular “war” triggered on purpose by occult forces, known and unknown, clear and unclear both by the rich and the poor. Influenced by these forces seen and unseen by man, the context favors his survival in this seventh millennium, and above all, to live his life according to the Scripture: “What happened in the days of Lot, will happen (...)” (Luke 17:28-30). We don’t imagine how important and meaningful this aviation event is, happening nowadays, at the beginning of the seventh millennium, between this story and the one described by prophets and seers who speak of particular facts and events that resemble, coincide with each other, but converging and leading to a particular date and to a particular “critical point!” They called it a day, “the day of the Lord” ignored by priests and preachers, and implicitly by parishioners, the inhabitants of the earth, busy with something else during these “terrible times”. Let’s read: The great day of the Lord is near and coming quickly! That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness” (Zephaniah 1:14,15). Coincidentally or not, I get this description of the prophet suits today’s context in the twenty-first century, but especially in the aviation event that occurred nowadays in the Apuseni Mountains. Remember, in “the Apuseni Mountains!” Is it a prophetic name? (apus=end, metaphorically)

I think there’s nothing accidental since government agencies and experts were involved in this aviation accident with modern computer equipment to locate and save the seven survivors. They were given the chance to find, under unfavorable conditions, as it happened to the female human on genesis, to choose whether she dies or “doesn’t die.” And yet, two men out of seven died: a man and a woman. The rest were saved by their peers, just as the woman and her sons were rescued-saved by a Son of man whom the Father kept on earth. This messenger of heaven has always been treated as such: mocked, humiliated, and spit in the face. Living at the end of the time, according to the Scriptures, they all proved to be overcome by the newly created situation, compared to their knowledge and the equipment they possess. In this case, the cause that triggered “confusion”, as it happened at the Tower of Babel, in the SOS transmission!

As the event is described on all television channels in an alarming way these days, nobody understands what happened in the malfunctioning of the seven survivors’ salvation? Due to the airplane landing technique over trees canopies (forced landing) applied by the pilot experienced in aviation, the plane didn’t catch fire. This unfortunate aviation event happened somewhere in the Apuseni Mountains, where three brave villagers from the “Moți county” (moți=inhabitants of the Apuseni Mountains area) got their act together on their own initiative and went to the scene of the accident; they really took part in the action of rescuing their peers, not knowing them, but especially not taking into account particular technical coordinates given by some “commanders” and went in darkness and fog, haze and cold, through snow, to the top of the mountain. Due to their human instinct, they discovered at about 10 p.m. the doctors unable to save themselves, being isolated on top of the mountain, suffering and dying. The Moți saved, using their own rudimentary means, the five survivors, after six hours of “waiting” (coincidence or not, with the six days of genesis) in cold and terrible pain. They carried them in their several miles away, to other villagers who had equipment suitable for the mountainous area, and so they all participated at midnight, to the rescue action, guiding them to the hospital in Cluj in ambulances, hospital situated miles away.

Many people express their opinion on the Apuseni Mountains plane crash, as they did for 6,000 years with the apple story, and 2,000 years with “shedding of blood” of Jesus Christ on earth, but also his return “on the clouds of heaven”, to transfer some souls to heaven, and to destroy the others. Aviation specialists agree that the cause of the plane crash is still unknown. The intervention of institutions in charge to discover the location of the plane crash, but especially of the failure to urgently rescue all people:

two of them, the pilot blocked between the hardware of the plane, male and the young student of medicine, a woman who, with frozen tears, asking for help from the surviving doctor, helpless in saving her, died in the meantime. And the three rescuers, the Moți arrived on the scene to help them remained impotent in their fate. It was too late!

The irony is that the involvement of some human forces, over 300 people for the discovery of the plane and the seven people, were directed to another location, inversely proportional to the location of the wreck. 12-14 miles away. Those seekers were directed in winter: cold, snow, night, darkness, mist and haze. This misguided direction of those interested should not be overlooked without understanding that the same thing happened to this race of people on genesis. From the moment of the woman's delusion who acknowledged before the Lord God that "the serpent deceived me" and to this day, all her descendants were deceived in different ways by the "old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world." (Revelation 12: 9). More or less noticeable and observable. They are all "wanderers and fugitives" on earth to win their lives and sustain life globally. In the Scriptures the prophet, long ago, describes the event: "That day, says the Lord, there shall be heard cries of mourning at the gate of the caves" (in the Apuseni Mountains, I say), "screaming in the other city's slum" (of the mountain—I say), "and great disaster on the hills. Cry, inhabitants of (...)" (Zephaniah 1:10,11). From Romania, from the Apuseni Mountains and everywhere, to the edges of the earth, I say. This context was exemplified in the Scriptures by many events of the past centuries, retaining two, with ever-present significance. What happened in the days of Noah, and in the days of Lot, shall also be done that day. But the Scripture draws attention: "He who has ears to hear, let him hear" and to "understand" what seers and prophets said a long time ago about "that day!"

The events the man of today is called to face are sufficiently publicized due to the advanced technique of mankind now compared to the past. They correspond to the same way of thinking and understanding of things, the same scenario the man always lived, either (1) on genesis, which led him to destruction through the flood of Noah; (2) either "on schedule" in the "court" where he was involved in the judgment of "this man"—Jesus Christ whom they crucified on the cross at Golgotha; or (3) "today", "at the time of the end" when "our children" are called to put an end to a particularly awesome scenario created in the universe. Three decisive situations for man, in three decisive moments, when each generation of people of this race had the possibility to choose differently than their predecessors. To return to the original state. But both on the "judgment", on schedule 2,000 years ago, and "at the end of the times" when the judgment is implemented, this people race has the same unitary view; they're all in the same position: they don't recognize the Son of man, called in the Scriptures "the Lamb of God" (John 1:29). Moreover, they "all" are "at war with the Lamb" (Revelation 17:13,14). The man was the one who expressed himself, chose, at each of these three crucial moments with seemingly insignificant occurrences, but which determined the so-called "future" of human existence, with always different people, such as those occasions, always others, offered by God the Father. And so it was demonstrated in the course of 6,000 years that none of the people who came to "judgment" here in the "valley of judgment" (Joel 3:14) and the "valley of mourning" (Psalm 84: 6), he chose nothing but to hide from the face of the Lord and not recognize His Supreme authority! Of the Lord God, who is "one with the Father" in heaven, and "Master over all," made and called "man" blessed by God on "genesis".

After the year 2000, we're all witnesses of a particular scenario, apparently without solution, in which the political class is divided into two camps, under the pretext of democracy, the population of this country—Romania—being forced by a particular "cause" to fight each other. This is how the prophet describes them: "Don't trust a friend, don't trust the closest relative; keep your mouth shut from the one you hold in your arms! For son scorns father, daughter rises against mother, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law; man's enemies are in his house" (Micah 7:5, 6).

I know from the Scriptures that in another "war" there were and are two entities involved in the field of spirit, engaging the "strong" ones on the earth, rulers of armies, ordinary man, the rich and the poor, faithful and unbeliever, young and old, who, willingly or unwillingly, are drawn into this struggle and bear the consequences. "I will bring such distress on all people (...): Their blood will be poured out like dust and their entrails like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord's wrath." (Zephaniah 1:17,18). We all live this prophetic "day", and we don't get it, although ongoing events often overwhelm us, confirming the prophecy made by the messenger of God for a particular time that corresponds to “that day”—the great day of the Lord—unrecognized by all “those who live on earth.” If you and your contemporaries know or don’t know about this prophecy, it’s your problem! It was said then, a long time ago, and confirmed by particular events and particular men of God, to be fulfilled today, nowadays, to which I too subscribe.

My contemporaries, seeing the special scenario created in this twenty-first century, the seventh millennium, feel that every year, events intensify, can no longer be controlled by authorities and specialists in the field, predicting proximity to that “end” that they feel but don’t accept it! About the time of the end that has come upon us, we read: “You, Daniel, keep these words hidden, and seal the book, until the time of the end.” (Daniel 12:4).

The man of our day got, counting the days, to the year 2,000 AD and 6,000 since genesis. He finds and recognizes unanimously, when the context requires it, that he’s witness and active participant in particular social, moral, political and religious events, but also natural, wonderful moments in the past century. And he, the man, regardless of the social category he belongs to, political or religious, is recorded in a particular register according to the Scripture: “Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust (...)” (Jeremiah 17:13). The man of my days admits that something happened in human existence, with the passage into the seventh millennium, when he, the man, properly celebrated the event. I will eventually return to the details of the events unfolded in the sixth millennium and the seventh millennium, seen by historians, which marked the euphoria of all people in “party times” from one end of the earth to the other: from the East—to the West!

But the Scripture draws everyone’s attention: “I, even I, am the Lord, and apart from me there is no savior. I have revealed and saved and proclaimed, I, and not some foreign god among you. You are my witnesses, declares the Lord, that I am God.” (Isaiah 43:11,12).

And here is how the “work” that the Scriptures testify, and I say today “at the end of the time” is an integral part of “Father’s work”, the God Almighty, who responds to the demand of all who “confessed the truth” during their days, even if they weren’t perceived as such by contemporaries, this race of people, whom they mocked, humiliated, tormented and killed them by different methods, to satisfy their desire. This “work”, remains with historical significance, very much evangelized, creating a state of war whose purpose and meaning was nothing but emphasis on the predominance of “the ruler of this world.” “He was a murderer from the beginning,” and demanded from the ones he mastered, “shedding blood”: as much blood on the earth as possible. At first, “Cain killed his brother Abel,” a deed that priests and preachers consider a banality, simplifying it to a simple term: “sin!” While the deed once committed by Cain, the first man born from a woman, drew in this action the attention of the entire universe, involving this race of people, that God the Father had to intervene promptly. To stop this “pleasure” that governs any man born from a woman, who is but “bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh,” as the “man” said.

The 6,000-year time that passed after the Scriptures enabled the two races, the one born from Adam, who is the Son of God and who is part of Jesus Christ’s “Family” who, after completing his work, ascended to the Father and to this “nation of men,” born from Eve, who “was the mother of all the living,” to show by confession by everyone’s “knowledge,” and less by deeds, as Paul said in his epistle, whom they represent on this earth: God—the Father—who is Spirit, or the “Lord” who assumed a unitary, duplicitous existence, saying: “He who has seen Me has seen the Father.” The man Jesus Christ assumed the responsibility of the Son of man 78 times in the Gospels, but also of the Son of God. This was the reason for the death sentence by court order, delivered by the judge of the time, before the people gathered on that occasion. In reasoning, they mention this nation’s responsibility, including our “children’s” for the act they committed: the “shedding of the blood” of this “righteous man”, guilt, which the judge alone has the right to declare and to deliver a sentence. In our case, being involved in committing the deed of “shedding blood on the earth,” or the terrible “work” in the infinite universe, first they decided and committed to stop the horrible deed, getting to “Noah’s Flood”, then to the judgment of the deed which, it turned out, involved this “race of people”.

The righteous man has always “confessed” what he “knew” from the Scriptures and the Father, “knowledge” that during the time of 6,000 years proved to be unfit for this race of people, born from “the woman” whom the Lord God created. This race descendant from “woman” and “Cain” who killed his brother Abel, never recognized the “messenger of God”; because of the “confession” made, people quickly scolded him, spitting him in the
