

Libris.RO

Respect pentru oameni și cărți

Cosmina Drăghici

Engleză
Dicționar de sinonime

 Booklet

Descrierea CIP a Bibliotecii Naționale a României
DRĂGHICI, COSMINA

Engleză: Dicționar de sinonime / Cosmina Drăghici. -

București: Booklet, 2005

Bibliogr.

ISBN 973-7752-33-3

81'374.2:811.111'373.421=111

A

- abandon v. 1. desert, forsake, leave, depart from, withdraw, evacuate; quit, relinquish, jilt, let go, abdicate, renounce, repudiate; 2. discontinue, give up, drop, stop, cease, forgo, waive, discard, junk, wash one's hands of, get rid of, relinquish, forfeit, surrender, scrap; n. 3. unrestraint, freedom; immoderation, intemperance; recklessness, wantonness, impulsiveness, impetuosity, spontaneity; enthusiasm, gusto, élan, exuberance, spirit, dash, verve, ardor, animation.
- abbreviate v. 1. shorten, abridge, curtail, condense, compress, synopsisize, contract, reduce, diminish; cut, cut down, cut short, trim, clip, truncate.
- ability n. 1. capability, capacity, power, facility, faculty, aptitude, potential, potentiality, proficiency, knack, competence, qualification; skill, talent, know-how, expertise, adeptness, adroitness, acumen; flair, genius, gift, mind for, bent.
- able adj. 1. skillful, proficient, capable, competent, expert, good, accomplished, masterful, effective, adroit, adept, apt; practiced, learned; 2. capable, fit, fitted, competent, having the means; equal to, adequate, qualified.
- abolish v. 1. eliminate, eradicate, erase, obliterate, extinguish, exterminate, annihilate, extirpate, terminate, end, put an end to, wipe out, stamp out, blot out, do away with, squelch, quash; repeal, revoke, annul, nullify, invalidate, declare null and void, rescind, cancel; abrogate, set aside, repudiate.
- abominable adj. 1. detestable, despicable, contemptible, reprehensible, loathsome, hateful, abhorrent, execrable, revolting, repulsive, repugnant, repellent, odious; wretched, ignominious, villainous, infamous, atrocious, horrid, horrible, foul, hellish, damnable, evil, cursed, accursed; 2. very unpleasant, disagreeable, miserable, terrible, deplorable, foul, extremely bad, unsuitable, awful.
- abroad adv. 1. overseas, out of the country; 2. out of doors, outside, out, out of the house, forth, out in the open air; 3. in circulation, at large, making the rounds, all around, round and about; spread far and wide, rife, astir.

abrupt adj. 1. sudden, unexpected, unforeseen, unanticipated, impulsive, unlooked for, unannounced; hasty, quick, rapid, swift, instantaneous, precipitate; 2. curt, brusque, blunt, brisk, gruff, short, crisp; discourteous, impolite, uncivil, ungracious, unceremonious, rude, rough; 3. steep, sheer, sharp, precipitous.

absolute adj. 1. unrestricted, unrestrained, unlimited, unconditional, unqualified, unbounded; complete, supreme, pure, full; 2. complete, pure, total, utter, definite, thorough, unqualified, unrestricted, sheer, unadulterated, unmitigated, unlimited; consummate, outright; 3. positive, definite, conclusive, sheer, certain, sure, decisive; real, genuine, reliable, unqualified, unquestionable, undeniable.

absorb v. 1. soak up, take up, suck up, swallow up, drink in, sponge up; 2. take in completely, assimilate, incorporate, digest, ingest; 3. engross, immerse, occupy, preoccupy, consume, engage, enwrap; arrest, rivet, fix, fascinate.

absurd adj. 1. unreasonable, illogical, irrational, preposterous, senseless; ridiculous, foolish, inane, silly, stupid, ludicrous, idiotic, nonsensical, asinine, comical, farcical; funny, laughable.

abuse v. 1. misuse, use improperly, exploit, take advantage of, ill-use; mistreat, maltreat, ill-treat; harm, hurt, injure, torment, excoriate; impose upon; 2. insult, speak ill of, scold, berate, carp at, rail at, revile, vilify, castigate; speak harshly to, reproach, criticize, bawl out, censure, upbraid; belittle, deride, malign, ridicule, slur, denigrate; curse, slander; n. 3. misuse, unfair use, improper use, misapplication, misemployment; exploitation, imposition; 4. mistreatment, maltreatment, oppression, ill-use, cruelty, torment; injury, harming, beating, assault; 5. insulting language, insults, harsh language, torments; berating, railing, invective, tirade; reproach, criticism, censure, scolding, upbraiding, castigation, diatribe, carping; belittling, sneering, disparagement, slander, ridicule, derision, vilification; cursing, defamation.

academic adj. 1. school, scholastic, educational; collegiate, university; 2. scholarly, studious; learned, educated, erudite; pedantic, bookish; 3. general, scholastic, college-preparatory; non-technical; 4. theoretical, speculative, conjectural, suppositional, presumptive; not practical, remote, ivory-towered.

accelerate v. 1. to go faster, to move faster, speed up, pick up speed, quicken pace; 2. speed up, hurry, quicken, hasten, rush, step up, augment, spur; expedite, further, promote, advance, precipitate, facilitate, intensify, impel.

accept v. 1. take something offered, receive willingly, receive with favor; 2. agree to, consent to, grant as satisfactory, accede to, go along with, assent to, receive with approval, acknowledge; 3. assume, undertake, bear, acknowledge, admit, avow.

accommodation n. 1. rooms, quarters, lodgings, housing; arrangements; 2. compromise, settlement, adjustment; agreement, concord, reconciliation.

accomplish v. 1. achieve, succeed at, carry out, do; perform, realize, execute, attain, fulfill; bring about, produce, expedite; 2. do, get done, finish, complete, achieve, realize.

account n. 1. description, report; story, history, record, chronicle, tale, narration, commentary; explanation, narrative, version, statement, enumeration, recital; 2. reason, cause, grounds, basis, sake, consideration, regard; 3. importance, import, worth, significance, consequence, note; value, use, merit; esteem, honor, repute, distinction, dignity, standing, rank; 4. financial record, financial statement, bookkeeping, books, accounting; v. 5. consider, regard, believe, look upon as, view as, think, judge, count, deem, hold, take to be; rate, estimate, calculate, reckon, value, appraise, weigh, gauge; 6. explain, justify, clarify, illuminate, give a reason for, show cause.

achieve v. 1. accomplish, attain, realize, reach, complete, finish, fulfill, arrive at; bring to pass, bring about, carry out, effect, effectuate, succeed in, do, dispatch; 2. attain, obtain, realize, reach, gain, get, earn, win, acquire, procure.

acknowledge v. 1. recognize, accept, admit, own, own up to, confess, allow, grant, concede, accede, concur, yield, assent; 2. recognize, extend cognizance to, take notice of; call upon, call upon to speak, call upon to vote; 3. respond to, reply to, answer; express appreciation for, thank for.

act n. 1. deed, action, performance, step, move; feat, exploit, accomplishment, achievement; 2. action, process of doing; 3. official decision, law, edict, decree, enactment, legislation, bill, resolution, statute, mandate, ordinance, measure, order; 4. segment of a play, main division of a play; short performance, routine; Informal skit, bit; 5. pretense, front, pose, posture, fake, pretension, show, insincere act, affectation, performance; v. 6. do it, perform, do, function, go about, execute, carry out, operate, move; press on, put forth; commit oneself; 7. behave, conduct oneself, comport oneself; work, operate, function; 8. pretend to be, feign, fake, affect, simulate, counterfeit; 9. perform, play, portray, enact, represent; impersonate.

action n. 1. power, force, work, effort; effect, influence; movement, motion; 2. operation, activity, functioning, performing, performance; process; production; 3. act, deed, step, move, endeavor, enterprise; exploit, feat, achievement; 4. activity, work, effort, exertion, movement, enterprise; committed attention, achievement, accomplishment, progress, execution; 5. combat, battle, fighting, conflict, warfare; 6. movement, excitement, adventure; 7. legal proceedings, prosecution, suit, judicial redress.

active adj. 1. energetic, vigorous, lively, animated, frisky, peppy, spirited, indefatigable; busy, on the go, occupied, forceful, engaged, industrious, enterprising, ambitious, go-getting, assertive, aggressive, zealous; 2. strenuous, energetic; vigorous; lively, animated; 3. functioning, actively operative, working, acting, effectual, productive; in force, at work; 4. alert, quick, vigorous, alive, lively; agile, spry, nimble, sprightly, animated, imaginative; industrious, diligent.

add v. 1. total, sum up, count up, figure up, compute, calculate, reckon; combine; 2. include, attach, append, affix, join, join on, tack on; offer in addition, supplement, increase by, enlarge by.

adequate adj. 1. suitable, satisfactory, sufficient, equal to need, passable, tolerable, fitting, fit; enough, ample.

admission n. 1. admittance, permission to enter, entry, entrance, access; 2. price of admission, entrance fee; ticket; fee, charge, tariff; 3. acknowledgment, confession, profession, concession, declaration; assent, affirmation.

advantage n. 1. asset, help, benefit, aid, service, profit; blessing, boon, support, comfort, convenience; 2. edge, upper hand, initial supremacy; superiority, success.

esthetic or <aesthetic> adj. 1. appreciative of beauty, appealing to artistic taste, having artistic tastes, artistic; sensitive, discriminating, cultivated, refined, fastidious.

affect [1] v. 1. influence, be of importance to, impinge on, act on, produce an effect on, alter, change, modify; concern, relate to, pertain to, interest, regard; 2. have an emotional effect on, move, touch, stir, impress.

affect [2] v. 1. make a pretense of, feign, fake, put on, pretend to, adopt, assume, imitate, counterfeit, simulate; fancy, show a preference for, tend toward, embrace, be inclined toward.

afraid adj. 1. scared, fearful, frightened, terrified, terror-stricken, alarmed, anxious, anxiety-ridden, apprehensive, timorous, panicky, panic-stricken; fainthearted, cowardly; 2. regretful, sorry, apologetic, unhappy; disappointed.

age n. 1. period of existence, duration of life, life span; lifetime, generation; 2. old age, advanced age, seniority; adulthood; 3. era, epoch, period, phase, date; stage of time, stage of life; 4. long time, eon, millennium; forever; v. 5. advance in age, grow older, mature, develop; make old; 6. mature, ripen, mellow, season, develop.

agent n. 1. representative; emissary, envoy, deputy, advocate; intermediary, negotiator, go-between; 2. force, power, agency, mover, effective principle; means, instrument, cause, author, vehicle; 3. doer, perpetrator, performer, practitioner, worker, mover, operator, executor.

aggressive adj. 1. hostile, belligerent, combative, assailant, pugnacious, vicious, tending to attack, contentious, warring; 2. self-assertive, forceful, competitive, bold; enterprising, ambitious, energetic, zealous.

agreement n. 1. mutual understanding, accord; concord, concordance, alliance, harmony, concert, meeting of the minds; 2. harmony, in keeping, compliance, conformance, conformity, compatibility, accordance, affinity; similarity, analogy, correspondence; 3. promise, contract, compact, pact, arrangement, covenant, settlement.

aim v. 1. point, direct, level, slant, beam, train on; take aim, sight, focus; 2. try, strive, aspire to, work toward, endeavor, seek, attempt, be after; intend, mean, want, wish, desire, essay, have in mind; have in view, have an eye to. n. 3. aiming, line of sighting; marksmanship; 4. desire, wish, intention, intent; aspiration, goal, ambition, target, purpose, object; plan, scheme, design.

air n. 1. the air we breathe; 2. atmosphere, sky, stratosphere; 3. wind, breeze, draft, air current, air flow, blast, puff, zephyr, whiff, waft, breath of air; 4. atmosphere, aura, mood, spirit, feeling, tone, ambience; quality, manner, style, look, appearance; 5. <airs> affectations, affectedness, pretensions, pretense, artificial manners; haughtiness, hauteur, arrogance, superciliousness, swank; 6. tune, ditty, melody, song, strain; ballad, lay, carol; v. 7. ventilate, expose to air, aerate; 8. voice, express, declare, vent, tell, utter; proclaim, reveal, make public, disclose, divulge, display, exhibit, publicize, expose.

alert adj. 1. aware, attentive, wide-awake, observant, perceptive, intelligent; active, quick, lively, sprightly, nimble; 2. watchful, vigilant, diligent, attentive, keen-eyed, wary, on guard, careful, heedful; n. 3. alarm, siren; warning, signal; v. 4. warn, forewarn, make aware of, signal, notify, inform.

alien n. 1. resident, foreigner, foreigner, outsider, outlander, stranger immigrant, newcomer; adj. 2. foreign, not native, strange; remote, distant, outlandish, exotic; 3. contrary, opposed, contradictory, inconsistent, conflicting, incompatible; unlike, different, dissimilar, unconnected, unrelated, incongruous; separated, estranged.

alleviate v. 1. relieve, ease, allay, assuage; lessen, reduce, abate, diminish, check, temper, lighten, soften, mitigate, mollify; blunt, dull, moderate, slake, slacken, subdue, quit, quench.

ally n. 1. partner, associate, confederate, affiliate; collaborator, accomplice, accessory; colleague, confrere; v. 2. unite, join together, join forces, band together, combine, bind together; affiliate, confederate, league.

always adv. 1. every time, on every occasion, without exception; regularly, invariably, consistently; 2. forever, forever and ever, for all time, eternally, evermore, everlastingly, perpetually; continually, unceasingly, unremittingly, incessantly.

ambitious adj. 1. aspiring; zealous, eager, intent, desirous, ardent, avid, determined; 2. grandiose, enterprising, industrious, energetic; strenuous, difficult, arduous.

analogy n. 1. similarity, likeness, resemblance, similitude; comparison, correspondence, parallelism, correlation, equivalence; simile, metaphor.

analysis n. 1. separation, breakdown, breakup, reduction, dissection, resolution, partition, dissociation; 2. examination, investigation, inquiry, observation, study, test, search; 3. judgment, evaluation, diagnosis, reasoning, thinking, interpretation, speculation, estimation, assay, appraisal; summary, review, outline, synopsis, abstract, précis, digest, brief; 4. psychoanalysis, psychotherapy, therapy.

anarchy n. 1. absence of government, disorder, lawlessness, chaos; 2. utopia, the millennium.

angel n. 1. messenger of God, heavenly spirit, celestial being; throne, seraph, cherub, domination, virtue, power, principality, archangel; 2. angelic person; 3. financial backer, patron, benefactor, sponsor, underwriter.

angle n. 1. geometry space between two lines or planes that meet; divergence; 2. bend, turn, corner, edge, cusp; 3. point of view, viewpoint, standpoint, position, side, aspect, slang; outlook, focus, perspective.

announce v. 1. publish, promulgate, proclaim, declare; broadcast, advertise, disseminate, give out, sound abroad, trumpet; disclose, divulge, reveal; 2. herald, harbinger, foretell, presage, augur, betoken, portend, signify, signal.

annoy v. 1. disturb, bother, pester, badger, harass, nag, heckle, tax, hector, tease; trouble, worry, torment, plague, distract, inconvenience; irritate, provoke, exasperate, vex, gall, irk, ruffle, rile, nettle.

answer n. 1. reply, response, acknowledgment, rejoinder; 2. solution, explanation, resolution; v. 3. reply, respond, acknowledge, react to; write, say, rejoin, retort; 4. give a solution to, solve, resolve; 5. (usually followed by <for>) be responsible, be liable, be accountable; pay for, suffer for, make amends for, atone for, expiate; 6. meet, fill, fulfill, serve, suit; be sufficient, be adequate, be enough, pass muster, be satisfactory, do well enough; conform, correspond, be similar, be like, be equivalent, be the counterpart of, be correlated.

anticipate v. 1. expect, look for, await; count on, prepare oneself for, look toward; look forward to, long for, pin hope on; foresee, forecast, predict, envision, foretell.

antipathy n. 1. dislike, aversion, distaste; disgust, repulsion, loathing, repugnance, abhorrence; antagonism, animosity, ill will, enmity, rancor, hostility, unfriendliness.

apart adv. 1. into pieces, into parts, asunder; 2. distant, one from another, afar; separately; 3. aside, to one side, by oneself, by itself, alone, aloof; isolated, separate, cut off, divorced.

appearance n. 1. appearing, coming into view, showing up, turning up; arrival, coming, advent, emergence, materialization, manifestation; 2. look, aspect, image; 3. outward show, pretense, guise, pretext, impression.

appendix n. 1. supplement, codicil, back matter; addendum, addition, postscript.

apply v. 1. put on, lay on, spread on; 2. use, utilize, employ, exercise, practice, implement, adapt, bring to bear; 3. be applicable, refer, pertain, relate, have bearing upon, fit, be appropriate, suit; 4. make application, request, petition; 5. devote, dedicate, direct, address.

appointment n. 1. designation, assignment, placement, commissioning; naming, selection, choosing, nomination; 2. assignment, position, office, situation, post, job, station, spot, place, berth; 3. meeting, engagement, date, rendezvous; meeting time, meeting place; 4. <appointments.> furnishings, furniture; accouterments, outfit, equipment, equipage, gear.

approval n. 1. good opinion, regard, admiration, acceptance, respect, esteem, acclaim, appreciation, approbation, favor, liking, acknowledgment; 2. permission, consent, endorsement, concurrence, agreement, confirmation, compliance, acquiescence, leave, sanction, countenance, license; authorization.

aptitude n. 1. ability, capacity, capability, talent, gift, faculty, genius, knack, flair, facility, proficiency, endowment, quickness, cleverness; inclination, tendency, predisposition, leaning, turn, bent, propensity, penchant, proclivity, proneness, predilection.

army n. 1. military force, military machine, military; land forces, land force, troops, soldiers, soldiery, fighting men, legions, legion, militia; 2. host, horde, swarm, pack, multitude, legion, throng, force, congregation, crowd, mob, band, gang, crew, bevy; mass; aggregation.

art n. 1. artistic activity, creative work, artistry; 2. works of art, objects of art; 3. artistry, genius, mastery, expertise, skill, facility, virtuosity, dexterity; 4. liberal arts, humanities; 5. craft, technique, methods, principles, strategy; fine points, subtleties, finesse, knack.

artful adj. 1. cunning, crafty, sly, wily, foxy, strategic, diplomatic, politic, scheming, designing, contriving, machinating, tricky; maneuvering; deceitful, deceptive, underhand, shifty, disingenuous; 2. skillful, smart, clever, shrewd, sharp, astute, quick, adroit, deft, resourceful, ingenious, inventive, imaginative, subtle, dexterous, knowing, able, apt, adept, masterly, proficient, gifted, talented.

association n. 1. organization, federation, confederation, confederacy, alliance, league, union, combine, syndicate, coalition, fraternity, society, body, group, club, clique; company, corporation, partnership; 2. affiliation, connection, alliance, participation, membership, relation, relationship, relations, collaboration; friendship, acquaintance, familiarity, intimacy, friendliness, fraternization, companionship, fellowship, camaraderie; 3. identification, connection, relation, correlation, linkage, tie, bond, affiliation, alliance; 4. combination, mixture, blend, meld, mingling, union, assemblage, community.

attend v. 1. be present at, go to, appear at, show up, frequent; visit; 2. take care of, tend to, look after, mind, serve, service, be attendant on, minister to, wait upon, care for, provide for; 3. accompany, conduct, escort, convoy, squire, usher, watch over, oversee, superintend, have charge of; 4. accompany, be associated with, follow; 5. heed, mind, listen to, give thought to, consider, observe, pay attention to, note, mark, take to heart.

avenue n. 1. boulevard, thoroughfare, broad street; parkway, esplanade, concourse; 2. way, route, road, course, path, pathway, passage, passageway, direction; opportunity, chance, means, gate, access, approach, gateway, outlet.

awful adj. 1. bad, dreadful, terrible, horrible, horrendous, deplorable, distressing, lousy, unpleasant, disagreeable, displeasing, appalling, frightful, ghastly, fearful, horrifying, hideous, ugly, gruesome, monstrous, shocking, revolting, mean, reprehensible, despicable, contemptible, low, heinous, base, dire, redoubtable, formidable, alarming; 2. awe-inspiring, awesome; wondrous, solemn, majestic, amazing, stupefying; fearsome, babble n. 1. gabble, gossip, drivel, twaddle, blabber, blab, gab, jabber, jabbering, prattle, chitchat, chatter; 2. murmur, clamour, hubbub, hum, din; 3. murmur, murmuring, babbling, burble, gurgle; v. 4. gurgle, murmur, gibber, coo; 5. talk, talk incoherently, talk foolishly, prattle, jabber, chatter chitchat, blabber, blather, blab, gab, gabble, prate, rattle on, run off at the mouth, murmur, gurgle.

B

back n. 1. backbone, spine, spinal column, dorsum; hindquarters; 2. rear, rear end, posterior, hind part, tail, far end; reverse, reverse side, far side; v. 3. go back, move backward; move away, retreat, retire, withdraw, pull back, fall back, draw back, back down, back off, turn tail; reverse, draw back, revert, retrogress, recede, ebb; return, rebound, recoil, spring back; 4. help, assist, support, aid, stand by, abet, sustain, maintain; endorse, abide by, sponsor, vouch for, promote, advocate, encourage, sanction, uphold, countenance, second, reinforce, corroborate, substantiate, confirm, bear witness, attest, testify for, validate, certify, affirm, verify, bolster, hold up, take sides with; praise, protect, guard; patronize, finance, subsidize, underwrite, warrant. adj. 5. rear, hindmost, hind, hinder, behind, after; posterior, dorsal, caudal, tail; furthestmost, farthestmost; 6. minor, unimportant; secluded, unpopulated, rural, remote, undeveloped, countrified, countryside, backwoods, distant; 7. past, previous, former, earlier; out-of-date, obsolete, expired, elapsed, behind, bygone, gone; 8. overdue, tardy, late, belated, delayed, past, elapsed; in arrears, not paid.

bad adj. 1. not good, poor, inferior, wretched, awful, terrible, dreadful, below standard, substandard, below par, second-rate, lousy; faulty, defective, imperfect, deficient, lacking, inadequate, valueless, useless, unproductive, unfit, baneful; 2. immoral, unethical, sinful, evil, wicked, naughty, wrong, offensive, corrupt, unprincipled, opprobrious, villainous, false, disreputable, criminal, detestable, deplorable, base, perfidious, reprehensible, mean, nefarious, beastly, rotten; 3. erroneous, wrong, incorrect, imperfect, fallacious, faulty, unsound, questionable; inefficient, poor, ineffective; 4. harmful, unhealthy, hurtful, injurious, detrimental; disadvantageous, troublesome, non-productive; risky, dangerous, hazardous, menacing; 5. unpleasant, unwelcome, disagreeable, disappointing, distressed, distressing, discouraged, sorry, discouraging, disturbing, regrettable, troubled, troubling; gloomy, glum, melancholy, joyless, grim, disheartening, unnerving, dreadful, obnoxious;