1 Read descriptions of a book and three people. Who should read this book?

Beyond the Mountains

This isn't really a guide book, so if you're looking for the best sights and walking paths in this region, it's best to buy something else. But if you're interested in the wildlife in these mountains, this will tell you all you need to know. It has some beautiful photographs too.

- Alex hasn't visited this mountainous region before. He wants to know how to get around and the best places to go walking so that he can see wild animals.
- Bernard knows this mountainous area well and enjoys the scenery. He often sees birds and flowers when he's walking and would like to know what they are.
- Caroline is looking forward to her visit to the mountains. She wants to see all the famous sites and take lots of photographs. She just needs advice about where to go!

2 Read about Emma and descriptions of three holiday homes. Where should she stay?

Emma wants to spend her holiday in the countryside. She is going away with her husband, her daughter and her parents. Her father is disabled and cannot walk easily. She'd like her daughter to be able to play with other children while on holiday.

- Beautiful old farmhouse surrounded in green hills. Sleeps five people in two double rooms and one single room. Get away from it all! There are no other houses around for miles! Safe garden for children. Wheelchair access.
- Holiday cottage in a small village located between the sea and the mountains. Games room will keep children happy for hours! Warning: steep steps may be unsuitable for very old or young.
- Lovely wooden cabins in a forest location. Various cabin sizes, sleeping 2, 4, 5, 6 or 8 people. Plenty of activities for all the family including children's play area, bike hire and water sports. All cabins and paths suitable for wheelchairs.

1 Read about the island of Bryher, then read the pairs of sentences.

Which sentence in the pair is correct?

Bryher is an island of contrasts. While huge Atlantic waves crash against rocks on the western side, the eastern side has calm, sandy beaches. Bryher is perhaps the wildest of the Scilly Isles and it offers a great sense of freedom, whether you are hiking up one of its small hills to admire the great views, exploring the rocky coastline or lazing on the beach.

Word of what this island can offer is beginning to spread. The luxurious Hell Bay Hotel has won many awards, and TV chef Jamie Oliver has publically declared the tiny Fraggie Rock Bar to be one of Britain's best pubs. Michael Morpurgo's book 'Why the Whales came' is set on this island, and the movie of the book was filmed here.

80 people are lucky enough to call Bryher home. There is one shop where you can buy everything you need for your holiday as well as the local speciality 'tatty cake'. There are also various food stalls beside the paths that cross the island, so you won't go hungry!

1. A. The eastern side of the island is safer for swimming than the western side.
 B. The western side of the island is safer for swimming than the eastern side.
2. A. Although the hills are not very high, you can see a lot from the top.
 B. One of the hills on Bryher is the highest in the Scilly Isles.
3. A. Jamie Oliver manages the Fraggie Rock Bar.
 B. Jamie Oliver likes the Fraggie Rock Bar.
4. A. Michael Morpurgo wrote his book while staying on Bryher.
 B. A story by Michael Morpurgo takes place on Bryher.
5. A. 80 people live on Bryher.
 B. There is accommodation for 80 visitors on Bryher.
6. A. You can buy food at just one location on the island.
 B. You can buy food at several locations on the island.

2 Read the pairs of sentences. Circle the pairs with the same meaning.

1. A. We may cancel some classes if there aren't enough people.
B. The number of classes available depends on the number of people.
2. A. 50% of your deposit will be refunded for cancellations made at least 4 weeks before your stay.
B. You will get half your money back if you cancel your booking less than 4 weeks before your stay.
3. A. All cooking equipment is provided.
B. It's unnecessary to bring cooking equipment with you.
4. A. Buses run from the town centre to the beach daily, although there is a reduced service at weekends.
B. You can't take a bus from the town centre to the beach on a Sunday.
5. A. The boat trips are popular even in the low season, so you should book well before you go.
B. Visitors are advised to book boat tickets in advance.

3 Scan the text. Identify the topic of each paragraph.

1. Introduction A 2. Luxury Camping 3. Around the campsite
4. Rules 5. When you can stay 6. Musicians at the campsite

Welcome to Dodo Campsite!

A We think that everyone should have the opportunity to enjoy the outdoors! And in our opinion, some things are just essential when camping! Kids need a safe place to explore, you need good, fresh food and in the evening, what's better than music around a camp fire?

B There are three camping areas in large fields. In the centre of the largest field is a big tent where music is performed every evening at weekends. We often hold workshops suitable for adults and children. Check our webpage to see what's on. At reception, there is a shop, toilets, shower and a television and games room.

C The minimum length of a stay is two nights at weekends (Friday and Saturday). You may not start or end your stay on a Saturday except in winter. You can check in at any time after 3pm. We ask you to leave the campsite before 11am at the end of your stay.

D If you don't have your own tent, you can sleep in one of our ten luxury tents at an extra cost. These come with double beds, chairs, tables and cupboards. You won't need to set up a thing! Check our price list for details.

E In order to make sure our guests have a pleasant stay, we have a few simple rules. Please be quiet after 11pm. Radios and stereos are not allowed at any time. We cannot accept groups of young people under the age of 19 unless an adult is present. Fireworks are forbidden.

F If you earn a living from your music, you and your family can stay at Dodo campsite for free during our busy season between April and October. We'll even give you some soup! All we ask is that you entertain our guests for at least one hour per night during your stay. Please email us in advance to arrange this.
