

Zoro the Dragon and the fearless knight

Translated by Tamara Bivol

As soon as the first rays of the morning sun sneaked in Andrew's room and kindly cuddled his eyes, he woke up cheerful and happy. He washed his face and teeth, and put on his knight armor, hoping today he will do some great things.

He had a delicious breakfast, and then he ran outside to explore the surroundings of the house. Zoro, a brave dog and a great friend, accompanied him.

"Andrew, please, take care, and don't go too far from the house!" shouted his mother from the doorway.

"Yes, mommy! I'll take care!" answered Andrew while running.

Zoro answered too: "Woof! Woof!"

