

Peppa is Kind

It was Well-Being Week at playgroup, and Madame Gazelle was talking about feelings with the children.

“What feeling does this picture show?” she asked, holding up a smiley face. “Happy or sad?”

“Happy!” called the children.

“And this one?” she asked, holding up a frowny face.

“Sad!” replied the children.

“Very good,” said Madame Gazelle. “It’s important we know what we are feeling and what others are feeling, too.”

At playtime, Peppa and Suzy Sheep were playing a game.

“I won!” shouted Peppa.

“No, I won!” shouted Suzy.
