King Midas

1 Listen and read. Act out the story.

1 King Midas is a greedy man. He loves gold more than his daughter, Princess Zoe.

2 One day, King Midas meets a genie.

3 The next day, King Midas wakes up at seven o'clock.

5 Princess Zoe is sad. Her father only loves gold.

4 King Midas has breakfast at half past seven.

6 King Midas has lunch at one o'clock.

8 King Midas is very happy.

Is King Midas right?
Is love more important than gold?

2 Read and say True or False. Listen and check.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1 King Midas loves gold. | 4 King Midas' son turns into gold. |
| 2 King Midas meets an old woman. | 5 King Midas asks to change his wish. |
| 3 King Midas can have three wishes. | 6 The genie helps King Midas. |

3 Read and reflect.

This story is a detective story / a myth / a fairy tale .

I think the story is scary / enjoyable / funny .

King Midas is / isn't greedy.

Princess Zoe loves gold / her father / the genie .

What do you think?

TIGER STREET

CLUB VALUES

Think about it:

- Why is it important not to be greedy?
- Are you ever greedy?

5 Listen and read. Sing What do you do every day?

What do you do every day?

Do you have time to work and play?

I get up at seven o'clock in the morning.

I have breakfast and I go to school.

I have lunch at one o'clock.

I play with my friends. It's cool!

I go home at four o'clock in the afternoon.

I do my homework and then I'm free.

I do sports and I see my friends.

I play on my computer and I watch TV.

I have dinner at six o'clock in the evening.

I put on my pyjamas and I say 'goodnight'.

I go to bed at nine o'clock.

I read a book and I turn out the light.

6 On pieces of paper make some cards with the daily routine. Write the times. Play Find the same.

I get up at half past seven. What about you?

I get up at eight o'clock.

I brush my teeth at nine o'clock.

Me too!

Time zones

1 Listen and read.

The world has got 24 time zones. That's one for every hour of the day. When you get up in the morning, it's time for people on the other side of the world to go to bed.

It's seven o'clock in the morning in New York. It's light. Bradley gets up at seven o'clock.

It's twelve o'clock midday in London. Emily is at school. She has lunch at twelve o'clock.

It's one o'clock in the afternoon in Madrid. Pedro is at school, too. He's in class. He's hungry. He has lunch at half past one.

It's ten o'clock at night in Sydney. It's dark. Sonya is at home. Sometimes she goes to bed at ten o'clock.

Do YOU know...?

Russia has got nine time zones!

2 Read and answer the questions. Listen and check.

- 1 How many time zones has the world got?
- 2 What time does Bradley get up?
- 3 What time does Emily have lunch?
- 4 Where is Pedro at one o'clock?
- 5 What time does Sonya go to bed?

3 Play Time puzzles.

4 Choose and say your favourite time of the day.

My favourite time of the day is eight o'clock in the evening.

Explore the internet with your teacher.

Find out the time difference between your country and Beijing in China.

Consolidation

1 Listen and repeat. Act out.

What time is it, please?

It's half past twelve. It's time to wash your hands before lunch.

Have I got time to finish my picture?

Yes, if you're quick. But you need to hurry.

All right, thank you.

2 Read and listen.

READING CORNER: traditional bedtime rhymes

Early to bed,
Early to rise,
Makes you healthy,
Wealthy and wise.

Goodnight, sleep tight.
Don't let the bed bugs bite!

Go to bed early,
Grow very tall.
Go to bed late,
Stay very small.

3 Listen and read.

TIGER STREET TALES

Reading For Pleasure

I've got a letter from my pen friend in Australia.

Is he a squirrel?

No, he isn't! He's a koala. Look.

What does he say?

He says he has lunch at one o'clock, just like me.

It's one o'clock now. Let's call him.

Ring ... ring ... ring ...

Hello. Who is it?

It's Squirrel, your friend in the UK.

Are you crazy? It's eleven o'clock at night here.

I'm in bed.

Oops! Sorry!

Oh no! It isn't lunchtime in Australia. It's a different time zone. It's the night there.
