It was a dangerous time for the city. A very bad Super wanted to steal money from the banks. He destroyed a lot of buildings and took a lot of money.

The Incredibles and Frozone worked hard to stop the Super. But they didn't catch him and now the city was a mess.

The police weren't happy. The Supers always made a mess of the city—and more problems for the police. That's why they were illegal.

"We didn't start this fight," said Mr. Incredible.

"And you didn't finish it!" said the police officer angrily.

Mr. Incredible and Elastigirl went home. Now they had no work.
