Buddy was Mr. Incredible's biggest fan. He was a normal boy, but he wanted to work with Mr. Incredible. Buddy invented rocket boots. Now he could fly!

"Fly home!" said Mr. Incredible. He did not want any help from Buddy.

Elastigirl was Mr. Incredible's wife. She was a superhero who could change the shape of her body. She loved Mr. Incredible and their life was very exciting.

But then their life changed. People did not want help from the superheroes anymore. They wanted the superheroes to hide their powers. They wanted them to be normal people.
