

LBRIS

Disney · PIXAR
books

TOY STORY 2

Level 3

Re-told by: Mo Sanders
Series Editor: Rachel Wilson

In This Book

Andy

A boy with some great toys

Woody

A toy sheriff and Andy's favorite toy

Buzz Lightyear

A cool toy and Woody's friend

Al

A man with a big toy store

Jessie and Bullseye

A cowgirl doll and her horse

Stinky Pete

A toy from Woody's TV show

Before You Read

Introduction

A man takes Woody because he wants to sell him for a lot of money. Buzz and all of Andy's toys want to find their friend and bring him home. But where is Woody? And does he want to come home?

Activities

1 Look at the pictures in the story and choose the right answers.

- 1 On page 2, what does Al want to do?
a buy the toy b take the toy c sell the toy
- 2 On page 4, what does Woody want to do?
a leave b be on TV c go to a museum
- 3 On page 12, what does Buzz want to do?
a bring his friend home b go to the airport c meet new toys

2 Match the words to the sentences. You can use a dictionary.

apartment museum conveyor belt yard sale

- 1 This moves bags at an airport.
- 2 You can live in one of these.
- 3 You can go and see old things in this place.
- 4 People can buy things at one of these.

Andy played with his toys for one last time before summer camp. But Woody's arm ripped. Andy was sad because Woody was his favorite toy. "Now I can't take Woody to camp!" he said.

The next day, Andy's mom wanted to have a yard sale. She looked for old toys in Andy's room and carried them outside in a box.

Andy's toys watched the yard sale from the window. Oh, no! Woody was in the box.

There was a man by the table. Andy's mom looked away and the man moved fast. "He's taking Woody!" Buzz cried. The man carried Woody to his car.

A little later, Woody was in the man's apartment at the top of a tall building. The man put Woody in a glass case. Woody was afraid. He wanted to go home.

