Culture

From Hollywood to Bollywood

1 Read the text and answer the questions.

- 1 Where are Hollywood and Bollywood? _____
- 2 How many films do they make every year? _____

Where do top movies (movie is the American English equivalent for film) like X-Men and Pirates of the Caribbean come from? They almost always come from Hollywood – the film capital of the USA. Hollywood's movie studios make about 500 films a year and they make all kinds of films, from westerns and war films to fantasy and animated. It's easy to see a film in Hollywood; there are several movie theatres on Hollywood Boulevard, for example the Kodak Theatre, which is home to the Academy Awards ceremony. But it's difficult to find a famous actor in Hollywood because movie stars don't live there. They often have a very large house in Beverly Hills, which is about 3km away.

On the other side of the world, Mumbai is India's film capital. The Indian film industry, or 'Bollywood', makes about 1,000 films a year and about 14 million people go to the cinema to watch these films every day in India. The nickname Bollywood comes from the city of Bombay (which is now called Mumbai) and Hollywood. Bollywood films are usually musicals with a lot of dancing and romance. They are usually comedies about a boy who falls in love with a girl but their families aren't happy.

2 Read the text again and find:

- 1 a word for a place where a film is made

- 2 a word to describe an event with prizes

- 3 a word to describe a very famous actor

- 4 six kinds of films

- 5 the word for an informal name

- 6 three frequency adverbs

3 Answer the questions.

- 2 What kinds of films do film studios in Hollywood make?

- 3 Which famous movie theatre is home to the Academy Awards?

- 4 Why is it difficult to find a movie star in Hollywood?
