Once upon a time, in a small Italian town, there lived an old carpenter called Geppetto, who carved a wooden puppet which he named Pinocchio. When he had finished, Geppetto was surprised to see that Pinocchio could talk and run.

A fost odată ca niciodată, într-un orașel din Italia, un tâmplar bătrân pe nume Geppetto. A cioplit o păpușă dintr-o bucată de lemn și i-a pus numele Pinocchio. După ce a terminat, Geppetto a fost surprins când a văzut că Pinocchio vorbea și alerga.

 Pinocchio was quite naughty and one day, he escaped and wandered through the streets for many hours. When he returned home, nobody was there, except for a cricket, which told him:

-You should be a good boy and go to school, otherwise you'll turn into a donkey.
