A large grid for dot-marker activities. The grid is 20 columns wide and 20 rows high. A vertical line is drawn on the left side, starting from the top row and extending down to the bottom row. The grid contains several groups of dots arranged in patterns that correspond to the illustrations above. The patterns are as follows:

- Row 1: Three dots in a horizontal line at columns 12, 13, and 14.
- Row 2: A horizontal line of ten dots from column 3 to 12, and another horizontal line of five dots from column 15 to 19.
- Row 3: A horizontal line of seven dots from column 1 to 7.
- Row 4: Two pairs of dots, one pair at columns 1-2 and another pair at columns 3-4.
- Row 5: Three dots in a horizontal line at columns 12, 14, and 16.
- Row 6: A horizontal line of seven dots from column 3 to 9.
- Row 7: Two pairs of dots, one pair at columns 1-2 and another pair at columns 3-4.
- Row 8: Two pairs of dots, one pair at columns 12-13 and another pair at columns 15-16.
- Row 9: A horizontal line of seven dots from column 3 to 9.
- Row 10: Two pairs of dots, one pair at columns 1-2 and another pair at columns 3-4.
- Row 11: Two pairs of dots, one pair at columns 1-2 and another pair at columns 3-4.
