

Șoricelul Pip
încearcă să
asculte cu atenție.
Chiar încercă!

A whimsical illustration of a fox wearing blue-rimmed glasses and a blue and white striped shirt, lying in a hammock between two trees. The fox is holding an open book and appears to be reading. The hammock is strung between the trunks of two large trees with green leaves. A small wooden lantern hangs from a branch above the fox. Several butterflies are fluttering around. In the foreground, there are various colorful flowers and plants. On the right side, a small hedgehog is peeking out from behind a tree trunk. The background is a light, textured greenish-yellow color.
