That Christmas Magic

Can you feel it in the air? As the temperature drops and the days grow shorter, twinkly lights begin to appear, brightening up the chilly nights. Familiar, festive melodies carry through the air, and the smell of home-baked cookies wafts through the house. That Christmas magic has arrived!

'Tis the season for holiday decorations, stacks of presents, singing carols, and gathering with friends and family. Christmas Magic Coloring Book celebrates this very special time of the year with more than 100 gorgeous images to get you into the yuletide spirit. This is the season to sparkle creatively!

Spending quality time with family and friends coloring is a fun activity that everyone can do together. After all, the best present you can give to each other is your presence, together! Put on some tunes and put the cookies in the oven. Let go of the holiday rush. Slow down and appreciate the season. You've got hours of holiday fun between the covers, inspiring the kind of holiday merriment that makes the season bright.

Make this a holiday to remember! Celebrate the delight of creativity with this festive coloring book.
