Prefixes are groups of letters that are added to the beginning of words to change their meaning.

Un- and dis-

Adding un- or dis- to a word gives it a negative meaning.

- Write un- in front of these words to change their meaning.

_____ well

_____ lucky

_____ tidy

_____ grateful

- Write dis- in front of these words to change their meaning.

_____ obey

_____ agree

_____ advantage

_____ appear

Choosing un- and dis- words

- Choose from the un- and dis- words above to complete these sentences.

I felt really _____ so I went to visit my doctor.

I _____ with that idea. I think we should do something else instead.

My sister's room looked very _____, so I tidied it for her.

Supporting your child Help your child to write words with common prefixes.

Re- means 'again' or 'back'

- Write re- in front of these words to change their meaning. Then cover each word and write it in full.
