A hullámok mindenről mesélnek:
Hogy a legnagyobb bálnák vajon hol élnek,
A szigetedig fújó szelek honnan fújnak,
A hullámok mind erről zúgnak, zúgnak.
